CHAPTER 11

MARKETING

CHAPTER ESSENCE AT A GLANCE:
Master customer-centric market creation: marketing management philosophies (production to societal concept), 4Ps Marketing Mix (Product, Price, Place, Promotion), branding, and packaging.

4 CORE PRINCIPLES TO UNDERSTAND FIRST

• Marketing Management Philosophies: Evolution from Production Concept (cheap availability), Product Concept (quality), Selling Concept (aggressive sales), Marketing Concept (customer satisfaction), to Societal Marketing (ecological and social welfare).

• The 4Ps Marketing Mix Framework: Controllable marketing variables: Product (branding, packaging, labeling), Price (cost, demand, competition), Place or Physical Distribution (channels, warehousing), and Promotion (advertising, personal selling).

• Branding and Goodwill Capital: Creating distinct identity via Brand Name and Brand Mark, protecting brand equity through Trademark registration, and building customer brand loyalty.

• Promotion Mix Symphony: Advertising (impersonal paid communication), Personal Selling (face-to-face persuasion), Sales Promotion (short-term discounts and freebies), and Public Relations (protecting corporate image).

CRUCIAL EXAM PRECAUTIONS & VALUATION RUBRIC SECRETS

• Alert: Selling focuses on transferring title of goods to generate cash; Marketing focuses on satisfying customer needs to generate enduring profits.

• Alert: A registered brand name that possesses legal exclusivity is called a Trademark, preventing competitors from using identical names.

• Alert: Advertising is impersonal and paid; personal selling is direct and flexible; sales promotion offers short-term inducements like coupons, discounts, and free samples.

HIGH-YIELD CENTUM QUESTIONS & STEP-BY-STEP EXPLANATIONS

1. Distinguish between Selling and Marketing across two key points. [Score: 2 Marks]

Answer & Key Valuation Steps:

• Focus: Selling focuses on the seller's need to convert goods into cash; Marketing focuses on identifying and satisfying the consumer's needs. [1 Mark]

• Scope: Selling is only a small part of marketing at the end of the chain; Marketing begins long before production and continues post-sale. [1 Mark]

2. Define Brand and Trademark. State the key difference between them. [Score: 2 Marks]

Answer & Key Valuation Steps:

• Brand: A name, term, sign, symbol, or design intended to identify the products of a seller and differentiate them from competitors. [1 Mark]

• Trademark: A brand that has been registered under legal statute, granting the owner exclusive legal rights to its commercial use. All trademarks are brands, but not all brands are trademarks. [1 Mark]

3. Explain the Marketing Concept philosophy compared to the Selling Concept philosophy. [Score: 3 Marks]

Answer & Key Valuation Steps:

• Selling Concept: Assumes consumers will not buy enough unless aggressively pushed through sales techniques; focus is on pushing factory-produced goods. [1.5 Marks]

• Marketing Concept: Assumes the key to success is determining customer needs and delivering desired satisfaction better than competitors; customer is king. [1.5 Marks]

4. Explain the three levels of Packaging: Primary, Secondary, and Transportation packaging with examples. [Score: 3 Marks]

Answer & Key Valuation Steps:

• Primary Packaging: The immediate container of the product kept till final consumption (e.g. toothpaste tube, cough syrup bottle). [1 Mark]

• Secondary Packaging: Additional protective layer discarded when product begins use (e.g. cardboard box housing a toothpaste tube). [1 Mark]

• Transportation Packaging: Heavy corrugated cartons or wooden crates used for bulk storage and transit safety. [1 Mark]

5. Explain any three major factors that influence the Pricing Decision of a consumer product. [Score: 3 Marks]

Answer & Key Valuation Steps:

• Product Cost: Total cost of production, distribution, and selling sets the absolute minimum floor price below which the firm cannot sell. [1 Mark]

• Utility and Consumer Demand: Consumer perception of product utility and price elasticity of demand sets the upper ceiling for price. [1 Mark]

• Extent of Market Competition: Intense competitor presence restricts pricing freedom, forcing competitive parity. [1 Mark]

6. State any three prominent Sales Promotion techniques used by consumer goods marketers. [Score: 3 Marks]

Answer & Key Valuation Steps:

• Rebate and Discount: Offering products at special reduced prices to clear excess inventory (e.g. 20 percent off). [1 Mark]

• Product Combination and Free Samples: Offering an extra product free with the purchase of a principal item (e.g. free mug with coffee) or distributing trial packs. [1 Mark]

• Contests and Lucky Draws: Inviting consumers to participate in contests or scratch-and-win schemes upon purchasing goods. [1 Mark]

7. Explain the four primary elements of the Marketing Mix (4Ps): Product, Price, Place, and Promotion.
[Score: 4 Marks]

Answer & Key Valuation Steps:

• Product: Tangible goods or services offered to consumers, encompassing design, branding, packaging, quality standards, and after-sales service. [1 Mark]

• Price: The monetary consideration charged from the customer, involving pricing strategies, trade discounts, credit terms, and allowances. [1 Mark]

• Place (Physical Distribution): Activities making products available to customers at the right place and time via logistics, warehousing, and intermediaries. [1 Mark]

• Promotion: Communication tools (advertising, personal selling, sales promotion, PR) used to inform and persuade customers to buy. [1 Mark]
